SPECIAL CALL TO ASSEMBLY ISSUED TODAY

Herbert Wants Taxes Cut and Old Age Pension Payments Raised.

BULLETIN

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., July 19—Gov Thomas J Herbert today issued his formal call for a special session of the legislature to reduce the sales tax and make effective the $5 federal increase for old age pensioners and the blind. The session will convene Thursday afternoon. The Governor stated emphatically he would not extend the purpose of his call after the legislature convenes. "I have no intention to ask that the national and state tickets be combined for the November election," the executive said.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., July 19 — Ohio legislators awaited formal call today for a special session designed to cut sales tax payments by $12,000,000 annually, increase old age pensions and provide more funds for the state welfare department.

Decision to call the special session was announced Saturday when Gov Thomas J Herbert conferred with Republican leaders

There was no indication that the governor in his call would request consideration of any other points than the three announced Once in special session, the legislature is bound to consider only the points listed by the governor

Herbert said Saturday he would ask the legislature to (1) reduce revenue approximately $12,000,000 by eliminating the tax on purchases of less than 41 cents, (2)) increase old age pensions and aid to the blind from $50 to $55 a month by making available increased federal funds voted by congress at the last session, and (3) appropriate additional funds for the welfare department to meet additional food and fuel costs at state institutions. The exact figure has not been determined

More Than Anticipated

The three per cent sales tax in Ohio has been raising far greater revenue than anticipated by the legislators who inaugurated the program Mounting revenues jumped state income as of the end of May, to $103 013,555, much of which came from the sales tax

Under the present tax customers pay one cent on purchases from nine to 41 cents, two cents on purchases under 71 cents and three cents on purchases up to $1

The governor's proposed $12,000,000 slash would eliminate the tax on the first 40 cents. However, if a taxable purchase amounts to 60 cents, for example, the sales tax still would be two cents, if the purchase is 85 cents, the tax still would be three cents.

Action of the legislature would give 35 000 old age pensioners $5 additional each month On Oct 3 1946 the legislature boosted maximum pensions from $40 to $50 a month Under the federal program that becomes effective Oct 1, 1948, the national government promises to pay $10 of the first $15 monthly and 50 per cent of payments above $15 up to $55 a month

The legislature will be told the state welfare department faces a $750 000 deficit in grocery money Last year the legislature appropriated $4 500 000 for food in the various institutions in 1948 Then in a special session $720 000 was added Estimates now indicate the total 1948 food bill will reach $6 000 000

Fuel costs also have gone up One dollar has been added to each ton of coal State institutions can use up to 275 000 tons The expected deficit for fuel is $780 000

Called Political Move

After the announcement to call the special session, Democrats commented that the governor's move was political Rep Fred S Harter said in Akron

"The call was purely political The Republican party is doing everything it can to get a shot in the arm. There won't be a howl from the public over increasing benefits for old age pensioners and to the blind They should have had it a long time ago

ISRAEL SAYS TRUCE BROKEN

Charges Syrians Use Planes, Artillery in Offensive in Defiance of UN Order.

By The Associated Press

CAIRO, July 19—Israel charged today that Syrian and Iraqi troops are engaged in widespread offensive operations in northern Palestine in defiance of the truce imposed by the United Nations.

A Haifa dispatch quoted an official Israeli report as saying Syrian troops attacked the Jewish settlements of Eingeb, Susita and Sha'ar Hagolan south of the Sea of Galilee.

The Syrians employed heavy guns, the report said, and firing still was going on this morning.

On the Jenin front, the report said Iraqi troop opened heavy artillery fire on Jewish-held Zir 'in six and a half miles north of Jenin, and on Jewish positions at Lajjun

Jewish forces entered the battle which is still in progress, the report said.

In western Galilee, Jewish forces captured four Arab villages before the cease-fire deadline Then the Arab liberation army opened fire on the Jewish positions from Tarbikha near the Lebanese border Jewish forces are pursuing the Arab volunteers which are fleeing, the report continued

Arab irregulars were reported to have attacked the Tel Aviv-Haifa highway today from Arab villages around Zikron Yaakov, the report said.

The Israeli government stated it will be forced to take operations to insure the safety of main roads for Jewish traffic

Elsewhere in Palestine the guns apparently were stilled under the truce

In Tel Aviv, an Israeli spokesman said Syrian planes bombed Jewish positions near Quakun in the central Palestine coastal plain

The Syrian army's communique issued late last night said the cease-fire order was given to Syrian forces at 5 30 p m. eastern standard time and went into effect at 6 p m EST

Count Folke Bernadotte the UN mediator had set 10 a m EST yesterday as the deadline

WHEAT AVALANCHE FLOODS ELEVATORS

Farm Truck Lineup Starts Before 6:30 A. M.

A veritable avalanche of golden wheat today threatened to deluge Marion elevators. County wheat growers formed long lines before 6.30 a m. today outside the Marion Milling Co and the Marion Grain and Supply Co

Each of the elevators reported long lines of wheat trucks, numbering 30 or more, already on hand when it opened its doors at 6.30 a. m. today.

Both elevators reported the bulk of the wheat being handled was of grade two and three averaging 58 to 59 lbs. and 58 to 60 lbs. per bushel.

Marion county wheat was bringing $2.11 for No. 1, $2.10 for No 2 and $2.07 to $2.09 for No. 3 at noon today, an elevator spokesman reported.

Rotary – Kiwanis Benefit Game Is Tomorrow Night

Marion's Cubs cousins to the Zanesville Dodgers in two of three weekend games, will host those same Dodgers tomorrow night in the Rotary-Kiwanis benefit tussle at Lincoln Park

If they could afford to do it, it might help the cause for the up-and-down Cubs to play more benefits In one other gift show—that of June 5 for the Booster clubs—the visiting Portsmouth Athletics felt the full wrath of the Cub's combine, surrendering a 12-4 decision.

Whether the Cubs win or lose, however, there will be one Marion winner and that will be the underprivileged children of Marion for whom the game is being played.

The Kiwanians and Rotarians are sponsoring the game, and receipts are to go into a welfare fund and a fund for child welfare work Tickets to the affair are only $1 and they may be bought from any member of the combined clubs who have placed the sale of tickets on somewhat of a competitive basis with each club trying to outsell the other So pick out your favorite Kiwanian or Rotarian and help these clubs and Cubs to help the kids

2 HELD HERE FOR FEDERAL OFFICERS

Police Say Marijuana Found in Home.

Irene Delilah Berry, 38, and Houston Hawkins Berry, 49 her husband, both of 744½ Fairfield street are being held today in city prison for investigation

Both were arrested by police at 10 03 p m Saturday after police were summoned to the Berry home to investigate a cutting scrape in which Houston Berry suffered nine knife wounds, believed to have been inflicted by his wife

No charges have been filed against either of the Berrys. City police await the arrival of Federal agents coming to investigate evidence uncovered at the Berry home by city police when they answered the call about the cutting incident.

A quantity of marijuana was found at the Berry home, Chief Marks said. Police will delay the filing of charges in the cutting incident until federal agents have completed their investigations and notify Chief Marks whether charges will be filed under the federal narcotics law

Irene Berry was bound over to the Marion county grand jury early this year on charges of shooting her husband with intent to kill, but no indictment was returned by the May term of the grand jury which considered the case She was charged at that time with shooting Houston Berry with a shotgun.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., July 19 — A man police identified as Charles M. Ward, 57, was found dead yesterday in the bedroom of his home after it had been swept by a two-alarm fire. The body was charred, and police sought to learn if the man had died before the fire.

TRUMAN AIMS SPECIAL BILL AT CONGRESS

President To Submit Anti-Inflation Measure to Special Session.

By The United Press

WASHINGTON July 19—The White House said today that the administration will submit a new omnibus anti-inflation bill to the special session of congress. It will be sent shortly after President Truman delivers his message to the opening of the special session July 26.

White House Secretary Charles G Ross would give no details of the bill But he said it will include some of the 10 anti-inflation measures which Mr Truman requested last November

At that time, the President asked for stand-by powers to impose price and wage controls and consumer rationing Ross today would not say whether these particular proposals will be in the new bill

The cost of living continued to go up since Mr Truman's original proposals most of which were not enacted Hence, he is not expected to drop his request for stand-by powers

Talks with Barkley

Mr Truman discussed plans for the special session yesterday in an hour and a half conference with Sen Alben W Barkley, (D) of Kentucky, the Democratic vice presidential nominee

Ross said that Mr Truman may submit his message to the special session on opening day, or on the second day, if that confirms with the wishes of congressional leaders.

"It will be an inclusive message" Ross said "but that does not foreclose the later possibility of single-shot messages"

Mr Truman's spokesman said that the proposed price legislation will be submitted by the administration "very shortly" following the Chief Executive's message.

"It will be a concrete bill on high prices," Ross said "The old ten-point anti-inflation program is still good in many respects but it must be reexamined in the light of conditions today

"The President regards this price bill as extremely important," Ross said. "It was one of the primary reasons why he called congress back into session"

Housing Major Topic

"Another major topic of course will be housing and it ought not to be very difficult for congress to do something about housing inasmuch as the Taft-Ellender-Wagner bill is an adequate bill passed by the senate and now in the rules committee (of the house)"

Ross said Mr Truman believes that if housing legislation is deferred until the regular session of congress in January, "the start of a housing program would be delayed a year or more"

"He believes the bill should be taken out of the house rules committee and passed," Ross said

There was speculation that the president would drop wage controls from his anti-inflation program. Labor bitterly opposes wage controls.

Sen Barkley said he hoped congress would speedily carry out Mr Truman's program None actually expects congress to do so

Republicans apparently are in no mood to go back with the President to wartime controls or any major part thereof But they recognize high living costs as an explosively dangerous campaign issue which Mr Truman plans to use as his chief election argument.

FUEL SUPPLY CUT TO GAS COMPANY

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON July 19 — The federal power commission yesterday cut 25 million cubic feet of daily natural gas deliveries to the Ohio Fuel Gas Co

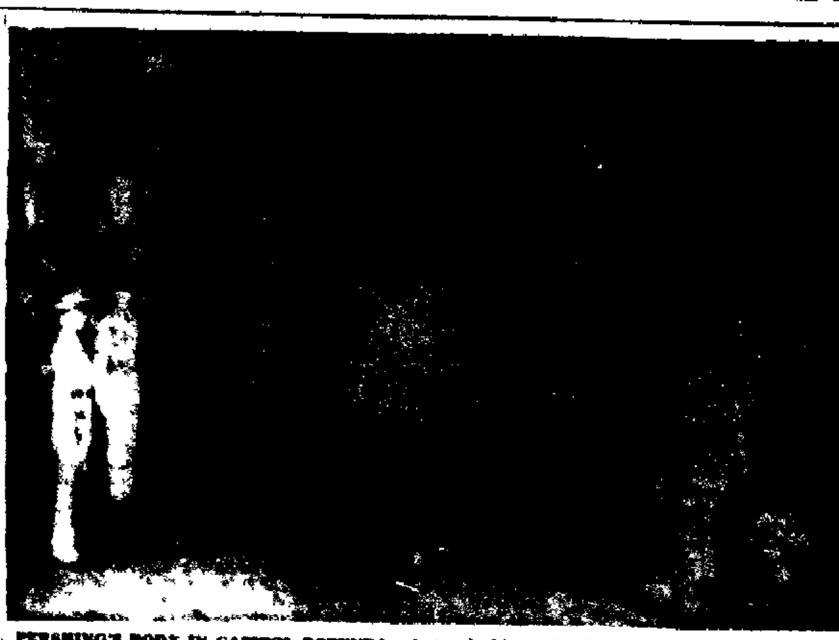

The decision was made in curtailing deliveries of the Panhandle Eastern Pipeline Company at Detroit It was designed to ease a middle western gas shortage next winter as much as possible

Panhandle had requested that it be permitted to cut its gas deliveries to Ohio Fuel Gas from 50 million cubic feet daily to 25 million. It first proposed to make the cut effective last April 16 but two days before that the commission suspended the cancellation notice until Sept 16.

In its order yesterday, however the commission agreed to the cut, effective as of last April 16 It noted that Ohio Fuel obtains only a minor portion of its gas from Panhandle, while most other Panhandle customers are entirely dependent on it.

The commission ordered that 15 of the 25 million cubic feet to be supplied Ohio Fuel be delivered

Pershing Laid To Rest In Green, Rolling Hills Of Arlington Cemetery

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 19—John Joseph Pershing, cavalryman came to the end of a long trail today in Arlington's green rolling hills.

There, in the national military cemetery among the other soldier dead, a grave was opened for the 87-year-old general.

The trail started out more than 60 years ago through the mountains and deserts of the southwest where yesterday's cavalry fought the Indians. It passed through the war with Spain, the Philippines, and command of the American Expeditionary Force in France in the first World War Down the trail was acclaim by a grateful nation and the title "General of the Armies," conferred previously only on George Washington.

At its end was a great tribute

Truman There

The President, who thirty years before had been a junior officer in Pershing's expeditionary force came to the high-domed great rotunda of the capitol on Sunday afternoon to take a last look at his former chief, who lay in state there With ex-artilleryman Harry Truman were high officials of the government and of the military

Out in the capital plaza and the blistering streets leading to it were thousands of the people who remembered the general. They filed slowly by the black-draped catafalque, thirty to the minute, for hour upon hour They were a cross section of the nation—youngish men for whom Pershing was only a legend, older men who served in his army; men in shirt-sleeves with straw hats in hand, women in summer dresses, children who were lifted by their mothers to peer down into the casket, servicemen of today's Army, Navy, Marines and Air Force.

24 Hours for Public

For 24 hours Pershing's body had lain in a tiny chapel at Walter Reed Army hospital where he had lingered out the last eight years of his life Then, after noon yesterday, the general's body was brought to the capitol to lie in state for another twenty-four hours so that the public might pay its respects

Four soldiers and an officer, as rigid and silent as the statutes which flanked the rotunda, stood guard about the casket The half-light of the rotunda the black catafalque the dark bronze coffin were relieved by a brilliant massing of hundreds of floral offerings

President Truman went to the capital yesterday as a former soldier to say farewell to his dead commander

Today, putting aside the grave duties arising from the threat of still another war Mr Truman prepared to attend the funeral ceremonies at Arlington this time as the President of the United States.

Picked Own Resting Place

The Army held the greatest military funeral since the Unknown Soldier was buried not far from the spot Pershing himself chose for his own resting place

To escort the general on his last march, 3,500 soldiers, sailors, Marines and Airmen came into the city

Tradition was everywhere in the planning A black cavalry horse, saddle empty, boots reversed in the stirrups was assigned to the line of march

But the cavalry which formed part of the great parade arranged for today contained no horses. The cavalrymen rode in armored cars like those that made the reconnaissance of World War II

And the Air Force paid its tribute by ordering up a flight of lightning swift P-80 jet fighter planes to give "air cover" for the cortege.

TO HOLD RITES FOR SOLDIER AND WIFE

Double Services Planned for Prospect Veteran, Widow.

Double funeral services will be held in Delaware Tuesday for a war widow and her husband a Prospect soldier who was killed in action in World War II The widow took her life Saturday night because of despondency over the return to this country of the body of her husband

Mrs Janis Marie Rossman, 24 shot and killed herself in her home in Delaware. Delaware police reported she shot herself through the heart with a .32 caliber revolver Her husband, Sgt John Philip Rossman Jr, 25 son of Mr and Mrs J P Rossman of near Prospect, was killed in action in France Jan 16, 1945, and was being returned to Delaware for final interment. His body which was returned to the United States July 9 aboard the Oglethorpe Victory, arrived at the Columbus General Distribution Depot just a few hours before his wife's death

Mother Hears Shot

Mrs. Rossman and her three-year-old son, Michael, lived in an apartment above the home of her mother Mrs Mabel Peak The mother, who heard the shot, found her daughter slumped dead in a living room chair in the apartment. Mrs Peak told police officers she saw her daughter alive about 6 p m when she took dinner to her About 6.30 while standing in her back yard, Mrs Peak said she heard the shot and ran into the house

The revolver was lying beside her Mrs Peak said she did not know her daughter had a gun Relatives said the gun belonged to Sgt. Rossman before he entered the service.

Police said Mrs. Rossman had been grief-stricken after being notified her husband's body was being returned and theorized she shot herself to be buried with him.

Dr M. Wray Davies, Delaware county coroner, ruled the death a suicide. He said a bullet from the five-shot revolver pierced her heart. The coroner said Mrs. Rossman had been ill of a nervous

ENLARGE PACT, BIDAULT ASKS

French Minister Hopes Other Countries Join To Form All-European Union.

By The United Press

THE HAGUE, July 19—Foreign Minister Georges Bidault of France opened a two-day conference of the five nations united under the Brussels pact today with an appeal to other European countries to join the Western Union.

Speaking at the first session of the conference in the Dutch Foreign office, Bidault proposed that the pact be enlarged eventually

"We hope other nations may later accede to it and take part in the work of the pact," he said He suggested that the union might be expanded into an all-European union

The foreign ministers of Great Britain, France Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg met coincident with the Berlin crisis to review the progress on establishment of a western union But their eyes were on Germany and Russia

Discuss Russian Threat

The conference was expected to skim quickly over routine reports on military defense plans and go into serious discussion on Germany and what to do about the Russian threat to drive the West out of Berlin

Bidault was expected to urge the resumption of four-power negotiations on Germany, first through the allies control council in Berlin and ultimately by reconvening the council of foreign ministers.

Baron Van Boetzelaer Von Oosterhout the Dutch foreign minister welcomed the other ministers and paid special tribute to British foreign secretary Ernest Bevin who originally suggested the western union.

After Bidault's response to the welcome the press was dismissed and the ministers began work behind closed doors

THREE POWERS STUDY PLANS FOR NEW RULE

Take Up Question Believed Underlying Cause of Berlin Blockade.

By The Associated Press

BERLIN, July 19 — The three western military governors met for four hours in blockaded Berlin today discussing plans for the projected government in western Germany.

An American spokesman said the Russian land blockade, now in its second month, was not discussed.

Commanders-in-chief of the U. S., Britain and France discussed French objections and German counter proposals to plans for the western Germany government. The western powers' plans to establish a separate regime is one of the underlying causes of Russian action in stopping rail, road and barge traffic to Berlin, which lies deep in the Russian occupation zone.

Gen. Pierre Koenig, French military governor, came from headquarters in Baden Baden for the meeting It was reported reliably that French objections to the proposals for a western German government had stiffened Germans in their attitude toward the plan

American air operations officials said the blockade busting air lift is running smoothly in the finest weather American and British pilots have experienced in recent days.

Expect Agreement Soon

The western powers are expected to agree this week on a plan to counter the Berlin blockade. The step may be a new note emphasizing the extreme danger of war, curbs on Russian ships in the Panama and Suez canals, a clamp down on trade, an appeal to the United Nations, or the dispatch of an Army-escorted train or truck convoy from western Germany to Berlin, despite Russian barriers. Should the Russians resist the last ditch measure, the resulting clash could mean war

Responsible authorities in Washington said privately they are convinced any show of weakness in meeting the Soviet challenge in Berlin would only invite the Russians to exert similar pressure elsewhere, such as in Vienna, Trieste, western Germany or any place where interests are in direct contact.

Informants reported that the western allies may be planning new, stiffer notes to Russia.

Donovan Urges Sanctions

Speculation that the western allies were planning to force a showdown was heightened by a statement of Maj Gen. William J Donovan issued yesterday through the American military government.

Donovan, who headed the office of strategic services during the war, suggested that sanctions be applied "promptly and decisively not only against the Soviet Union, but against her satellites as well."

In Berlin on a mission described as private, Donovan said the American-British air fleets bringing food and fuel for the 2,400,000 residents of western Berlin could only postpone, not resolve the basic issue "which is really war or peace"

White House Conference Held on Berlin Crisis

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 19 — President Truman called top Army and diplomatic chiefs to the White House today as the Berlin blockade drove the western allies toward a new program of action.

The conference included Undersecretary of the Army William H. Draper, Jr., who has just returned from the danger areas along the rim of the iron curtain in Europe.

Secretary of the Army Royall and Undersecretary of State Lovett also were sitting down with the President at the midday meeting. Their talk was scheduled immediately after the President's weekly foreign policy conference with Secretary of State Marshall.

The western powers were expected to reach agreement this week on a plan to counter the Russian blockade of the German capital with forceful measures on a world scale

HIGHWAYS GETTING NEW SAFETY LINES

Work Under Way in District Including Marion County.

Many roads in Division Six counties of the state highway department including Delaware, Fayette, Franklin, Madison, Marion, Morrow, Pickaway and Union, are in the process of having an application of new yellow and white stripes for the protection of motorists, Division Engineer Robert F. Warner said today.

State routes most widely used for vehicular traffic, better known as priority roads, are receiving their share of attention. When these are completed, secondary roads will be marked.

Glass beads, superimposed upon the paint, is an added protection, since the beads reflect the aligned stripe, particularly at night, enabling the motorist to better observe hazardous spots, Mr. Warner said.

The striping machine and its nine employes have recently completed jobs in the counties of Marion, Morrow, Delaware and Union (Route 23 excepted), and are at present scheduled to begin operations in the other four counties.

To remind motorists of dangers, the crew applies a road-tested paint job in no-passing zones at hills and curves where the view is restricted, and at other places where it is unsafe to pass. An auxiliary yellow line is painted alongside the center white line to guide the driver and this auxiliary line, when on the driver's side of the center line, indicates that it is unsafe to pass a car ahead.

On three-lane state routes where the view ahead is limited, the yellow auxiliary barrier line is painted by the crew on the right side of a stripe angling across the center lane, to the right lane, then along the right side of the lane line, thereby restricting the driver to one lane.

For safety, never cross the yellow line when it is in your lane.

Your Good Health

By DR. HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

A Stubborn Scalp Infection

During recent years a scalp condition known as tinea capitis or ringworm of the scalp has become a concern of public health authorities and a constant worry to mothers of school-age children. The usual victims are youngsters between the ages of five and twelve. In many large cities this disorder has assumed epidemic proportions, sweeping through grammar schools like a wild-fire and affecting large portions of the school population.

Spread by contact with hairs on which the ringworm parasite is present, the principal places of contact are the home, school, playground, movie and barber-shop. In occasional instances, it has been transmitted by animal pets.

The disorder apparently clears up of itself when the child matures. It is thought that this improvement may be due to the influence of certain of the glands of internal secretion which cause an increase of certain fatty acids in the skin and hair.

The first signs of ringworm of the scalp are patches covered with a fine, grayish scale. The hair becomes dry, loses its luster, and finally breaks off just above the skin surface, leaving a stubble.

The diagnosis is usually easily made by examination of the scalp under what is called a Wood's light. The light is used in a dark room with the child directly under it. Diseased hairs will show brilliant, greenish fluorescence. The scaly areas appear turquoise blue in color. In order to confirm the diagnosis, a few of the hairs which show fluorescence under the Wood's light, may be removed and examined under the microscope for evidence of the ringworm parasite.

It would appear that the best treatment for the condition is the removal of the hair from the affected areas by means of the X-ray. However this treatment must be carried out by a well-qualified person in order to prevent permanent loss of the hair.

In those instances in which only a small area of the scalp is involved the hair may be pulled out.

Following the use of the X-ray to get rid of the hair preparations containing mercury or iodine are used to destroy the parasites that may be applied.

Some physicians think a child with ringworm infection of the scalp should not play with other children, attend school, the theatre or Sunday School, nor go to the barber-shop until treatment to make the condition non-infectious has been given. It may be satisfactory to have him wear a skull cap at all times, and the cap should be boiled after each wearing. The hair and scalp may be washed daily with a special soap. After the patient is considered cured, the skull caps should be burned so that they will not carry the infection to others.

Questions and Answers

M. R.: What is secondary anemia? What causes it?

Answer: Secondary anemia is a lessening of the amount of coloring in the blood and the number of red cells due to such things as infection, bleeding, deficiency of iron-containing foods, and similar causes.

Treatment consists in finding the cause of the anemia and eliminating it and administering some iron-containing preparation.

Love's Perilous Path

By ADELE GARRISON

Olga Verriren never forgets anything so I knew that she must have had some good reason for having given her plan to talk to her husband about his son's role in the wedding. I also knew that she would tell me about it at the first opportunity, so I put the question into a remote compartment of my mind, and threw myself into the animated discussion over the gowns.

"I can't wait to see you in that gown, Olina," Mary said. "Hurry up and get out your top drawer lingerie some of those things your mother has been buying for you ever since your engagement announcement."

"It is so fortunate I purchased those things," Olga said serenely. "There is no time for shopping now."

"And no need," Olina said, giving her mother an affectionate smile. "There is nothing, no single item, which I haven't in any suggestion you wish to make."

"It is simply this," she said. "If Faith cannot see the gown before she goes to the farm we should do some preliminary measuring so that we can estimate how much work we will have to do on it. There is a card attached to this that tells the height of the child for which it is intended."

She handed it to me and I gave an exclamation of pleased astonishment.

"Faith's height to the inch," I said.

"Then we can be certain she will not fall over it and we will not have to shorten it," she said. "Now if you will go down to your apartment and get Faith's newest gown, we can take other measurements from it that will greatly simplify our problem. Olina can wait to try on her dress until you come back."

"Why should she?" I countered. "Mary will not need any aid as a fine woman, and you will be here to supervise the job. I shall be glad to be surprised when I come back. But don't dare to take it off, Olina, until I return."

"Do you have any sort of notion that I would do that?" Olina countered, and I wrinkled my nose at her as I went toward the door. But before I reached it Olga's voice stopped me.

"Just what do you think you're doing?" she asked.

"Going down to my apartment," I answered. "Oh," as I comprehended the meaning of her question.

"You remember your father's orders," she said. "You don't go through the corridors without a masculine—and armed—escort."

WHAT'S THE PRICE OF A BUICK?

7 out of 10 Guess Too High!

WE'LL admit that this husky two-toni honey looks like something super duper.

When you sample its ride, its handling and the silken liveliness of its big Fireball straight-eight power plant, you are likely to ticker it in the near-luxury class.

So, naturally, when we put the question to a cross section of carwise men and women—when we asked them to name their idea of the delivered price for a Buick SUPER—7 out of 10 guessed too high!

The fact is that—in relation to today's values—Buick prices begin at a lower level than before the war.

Dollar-wise, all prices are up—but Buick cars are not up as much as most other things—or even as much as the cost of building them.

So don't jump to conclusions without a bit of shopping around. Get the delivered prices—not only on Buick but on others, too—including cars with far less power, far less heft, far less room and far less distinction.

You'll find that a lot of folks are paying within a few dollars of the price of a Buick—or maybe more than the price of a Buick—and getting something that can't hold a candle to what a Buick has to offer.

You'll find that price comparison gives you another sound reason for getting your firm order in—particularly since your Buick dealer will take it with or without a car to trade.

All cars are delivered with accessories as ordered, and prices are figured to cover these. We pledge ourselves to add no "extras" except those each customer orders.

3. NO COMPULSORY TRADE-INS.
We will take your order and deliver your car without requiring a trade-in. However, we have many valued used-car customers we would like to supply and we will give you a fair and reasonable allowance on your present car.

4. NO COLLUSION WITH "GRAY MARKETEERS."
We will not knowingly be a party to the sale of Buick cars to any individual who operates in the "gray market." Our only interest is to deliver new cars to bona fide customers.

'VOTING GUIDE' ISSUED BY CIO

Gives Taft Better 'Report Card' Than 17 Other Senators.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 19 — The CIO gave Senator Taft (R-Ohio), its favorite whipping boy in congress, a better report card than 17 other senators. And its mark on Taft would have been even higher if the Ohioan had not been absent on several votes.

The union, in its "Voting Guide" published yesterday, singled out Taft as "boss of the GOP—sponsor of the law to bust labor unions."

Taft was credited with voting "right," from the CIO viewpoint, on two of 18 measures that came up in the senate—on rent control and federal aid to schools. He was a sponsor of the school bill.

Taft was marked absent in the rollcall on two other bills however, on which he probably would have voted the way the CIO favored in its poll: an amendment on the public housing program of which he was a co-sponsor and on the European recovery program passage.

As it is, his mark is better than 17 fellow members of the senate and as good as the record of 10 others.

Ahead of Bricker

Taft's CIO score is one-up on his fellow Ohio Republican senator John Bricker who was marked "right" only once—on the foreign aid vote.

The CIO gave five Ohioans in the house what is termed "an A for effort" because they signed the petition which if successful would have forced the Taft Ellender-Wagner housing bill to the house floor for a vote. The senate passed the bill, but the house approved a watered-down version.

These five are Reps Bender (R), Huber (D), Kirwan (R), Feighan (D) and Crosser (D). The union said they "did their best to vote 'right' on housing."

Crosser, Feighan and Huber received unanimous approval on all their votes while Kirwan was marked "wrong" on only one farm electric power loans.

Rep Burke with five "rights" topped Ohio republicans in the house according to the CIO.

Ratings of Others

This is the union's card on other Ohio members of congress:

Bender three right, Bolton three, Brehm, three, Brown, one, Carson, two Clevenger one Elston three Griffiths, two Hess, three Jenkins two Lewis, three, McCowen, two McGregor, three, McCulloch one Ramey, three, Smith one, Vorys, three Weichel, two.

DIXIECRATS MAP OUT PLANS FOR CAMPAIGN

By The Associated Press

BIRMINGHAM, July 19—Campaign plans occupied the attention today of southern Democrats who met here Saturday for the purpose of defeating President Truman in the Solid South.

The dissident southerners chose Gov J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina as their presidential candidate and Gov Fielding L. Wright of Mississippi as his vice presidential running mate.

Proposals by President Truman for civil rights legislation indorsed last week by the Democratic convention, brought the southern revolt.

The move against Mr Truman here emphasized his stand on such explosive—in the South—issues as segregation and a fair employment law.

Definite plans for the Thurmond-Wright ticket have not been announced. Leaders of the movement indicated they would vary in the different southern states. In some they would seek to place a ticket on the ballot in opposition to Mr Truman.

In others they will ask the state conventions or state executive committees to place anti-Truman electors on the ballot as the regular Democratic slate.

Meanwhile at Columbia, S. C. Thurmond declined to talk about his campaign strategy with newsmen but he did say that the South now was afforded an opportunity to show the leaders of the national Democratic party that we won't be kicked around.

His nomination to lead the rebellious southern Democrats he said came as "a complete surprise."

Paving Suit Filed Against Marysville

MARYSVILLE, O. July 19 — The G. H. Leach Construction Co. of Bellefontaine has filed suit against the city of Marysville for $8,018.

The action was filed in Union county common pleas court by C. A. Hopper, attorney for the Leach Co. which claims the money is due for repaving work done after installation of a storm sewer here.

Marysville village council has withheld payment of the amount charging a resurfacing job on a section of the repaving was not satisfactory. Council was informed of possible court action July 8 but took no action on the matter at that time.

Piles Are Never "Mild"

DANGER IN NEGLECT

No one should ever think of piles (hemorrhoids) as a "mild" disorder.

Although they may seem a trivial ailment especially when not giving pain or inconvenience, piles are in fact tumor formation without tendency to heal themselves. Instead they are likely if neglected to keep increasing in size involving more and more of the rectal area.

Even a so-called "mild" case may be expected to undermine one's health by inviting predisposing to or aggravating [illegible] such as indigestion, biliousness, stomach trouble, [illegible] headaches, pain in back and down the legs, accompanying anemia with its run-down tired feeling and general nervous irritability.

Removal of piles is the only permanent relief written guarantee. My method produces little or no discomfort, does not require the use of knife or drugs and seldom is the patient required to lose any time from work or other duties.

Why not call and learn of this method? The examination is free.

RADIO QUIZ WINNER SPURNS PRIZE MONEY

By The United Press

NEW YORK, July 19 — The Mutual Broadcasting system had $7,300 it didn't know what to do with [illegible].

The money was won on the "Three For The Money" quiz show by Jack L. Adams, Huntington, W. Va. but he refused to take it, a thing unheard of in radio circles.

Mutual executives scheduled a special meeting today to determine what to do with the money.

Adams, a 28 year-old war veteran, won the money Saturday when he identified by telephone a number of dance tunes played by an orchestra.

Yesterday he telephoned network officials and said he didn't want the money.

He said people had been calling him all night and asking for donations and trying to sell him things he didn't want. He also was asked to speak at clubs and was invited to parties he didn't want to attend he said.

Furthermore, Adams, who makes $3,300 a year, said the money would put him in the $10,000 income bracket and much of the winnings would go for taxes. He said what he would receive wouldn't be worth the trouble.

"I just want to lead a peaceful life," he told network [illegible].

WHAT "Stepping Down" MEANS TO YOU

How the New Hudson, America's most streamlined car with the low silhouette, brings you roominess and comfort never before obtainable in an automobile.

You've seen them flashing by in all their sparkling color — those trim, gorgeous New Hudsons with the low streamlined silhouette.

But have you really examined one of these amazing cars? They are the big news in the automobile world today!

Hudson, always known for great forward steps in the development of the automobile and for efficient use of motive power, is again 'way out ahead with a motor car that hits a new high in efficient use of space—that makes a greater percentage of its total space actually available for your use and comfort.

When you take a close look you'll find that Hudson, through the use of a new exclusive "step-down" zone, reclaims so much usually wasted space that this sensationally efficient car gives you more usable interior room than you've ever before experienced in an automobile.

This new kind of motor car has a sturdy foundation structure surrounding the passenger compartment which permits the floor to be recessed down within the base frame so that you step down when entering. This makes space between frame members which is usually wasted available for use inside the car.

Seats can thus be lowered to harmonize with the new lower top and by stepping down into Hudson which is only five feet from ground to top, you get more head room than in any other mass-produced car built today.

And how about seating room? Hudson's new design reclaims space formerly taken up by wheel housings and protruding fenders. This is accomplished by placing rear seats ahead of the rear wheels in a zone unrestricted by wheel housings. As a result rear seats are 13 inches wider in this car that is only little more than four inches wider over-all. Both rear and front seats extend the full width of the body, giving Hudson the roomiest seats in any American-made car! Hudson's use of the "step-down" zone and unique seating arrangements are illustrated in the sketches that follow.

OTHER CARS—Passengers ride on top of a frame as shown above, and in the rear seat between rear wheel housings which occupy space that should be a part of seating room. Riding on top of a frame means that essential head room must be reduced if the roof is lowered for streamlining.

NEW HUDSON—You ride cradled down within Hudson's base frame, as shown above and also ahead of the rear wheels. Seats can therefore extend full width of the car. Due to the use of the "step-down" zone roof is lowered for streamlining, yet ample head room is provided.

The New Hudson even reclaims the unused space in doors by providing gorgeously tailored recessed compartments where interior door handles, window cranks, ash receivers and generous arm rests are placed out of the way to allow increased elbow room for passengers.

This development of Hudson's exclusive, all-steel Monobilt body-and-frame* with its "step-down" zone required years of engineering work, the perfection of new production techniques and millions of dollars in highly specialized new plant investment. This may be why Hudson, and Hudson alone offers this important advance today.

"Stepping down" is so important to motor-car beauty, riding qualities and safety, as well as roominess and comfort that the nearest Hudson dealer has a booklet—yours without obligation—fully explaining this design principle. Hudson Motor Car Company, Detroit 14.

MEDIC SAVES CHILD'S LEGS

Mangled Limbs Made Whole by Surgeon; Feat Related After His Death.

By The United Press

BUFFALO, N. Y.—The story of how a sympathetic surgeon saved the almost completely severed legs of a little girl [illegible] at Our Lady of [illegible] Hospital in nearby Lackawanna [illegible].

The child Eleanor [illegible] was five years old and she runs and plays like any other child her age. But the first time Eleanor met the late Dr Michael A. Sullivan several years ago [illegible] patient.

Playing on her father's farm near Buffalo, Eleanor became pinned beneath her father's tractor. She was taken to the hospital with her mangled legs dangling.

One leg was severed except for a section of muscle. The other leg was badly fractured. Doctors and nurses prepared for immediate amputation as Dr. Sullivan, then the hospital's chief of staff, scrubbed for the [illegible].

Doctor Hesitates

"It's an awful thing to lose a leg," Dr. Sullivan said. "Let's let this go and rest until tomorrow."

A special splint was made for the severed leg and the wound was sprinkled with sulpha powder to prevent infection. After 24 hours during which nurses watched over Eleanor constantly, the operating room was prepared for the amputation.

Dr. Sullivan hesitated. And although other physicians urged him to amputate, he decided to wait a little longer.

Instead of putting a cast on the leg, Dr. Sullivan ordered a loose bandage to guard against infection. Finally, as Eleanor [illegible] improved, he ordered a cast. But the chance of complete recovery was a long one. Even if the flesh healed without infection, the bone ends and nerves might not knit.

Months later the cast was removed. In a room filled with nurses, doctors and technicians, the plaster was taken off. Gentle hands massaged the stiff muscles. Everyone waited to learn the effects of Dr. Sullivan's efforts.

Wiggles Her Toes

"Wiggle your toes, Honey," one of the hospital sisters said to Eleanor.

Eleanor wiggled her toes, and all five of them moved. The first stage of the program was a success. But would the child be able to walk?

After weeks of exercise and massage, Eleanor was assisted from the bed. With helping hands nearby to aid her, she was asked to [illegible]. Then she took a few steps. Dr. Sullivan had saved her leg.

There is no known record of any other case where a leg had been virtually amputated including the bone and healed together again, Sister M. Theophane, hospital superintendent, said. The case, she added, was not publicized during Dr. Sullivan's lifetime at his own request.

THROWS GIRL 125 FEET TO DEATH. A murder charge has been filed in Cincinnati, O., against Harry Robertson, 33 (left) after he allegedly threw eight year-old Patricia Jackson to her death off a 125-foot-high viaduct for no apparent reason. Robertson, who said he had been in a mental hospital explained only that radioactivity forced him to do it.

GEORGIA PEACH MAY GET BUM'S RUSH AT MACON

By The United Press

MACON, Ga.—The Georgia peach, the fruit which made this section famous, may get tossed off historic Vineville avenue here on its stem.

Irate realtors have asked the city council to forbid peddlers from setting up their stands along the route to sell the fruit to tourists and other passersby. Such has been the custom—almost a tradition—for many years.

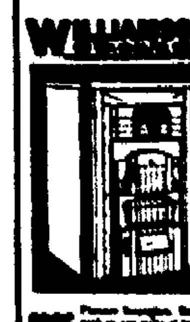

Now the plaintiffs say the little stands create a traffic problem.

Certainly the U. S. Is Afraid

WHOEVER has the upper hand in the Kremlin wants to start war over the Berlin quarrel. If there were no Berlin, some other excuse would be found. The Russian government is war-minded.

Its mouthpieces are taunting the United States with being afraid to go to war with Russia. Certainly the United States is afraid and it would be a victim of mass insanity if it weren't afraid.

Americans are in mortal terror because for the second time in this decade sick minds have pushed the world to the brink of international disaster. By any conceivable standard of human conduct, the policy of the Kremlin is demented. The Russian dictatorship has rejected every proposal that might have strengthened the prospects of peace. It has been ruthless in its use of propaganda and agents to stir up trouble. If the United States did not have enough collective sense to be scared in the face of evidence that the Soviet Union is about to run amuck it would be guilty of taking international responsibility under false pretenses.

Every American with the slightest knowledge of what is going on prays for a miracle to prevent the clash with Russia which otherwise is inevitable. Nihilists whose apparent aim is to wipe out civilization so they can build a new order based on terror are on the verge of starting World War III. Their aims admit no compromise. Unless they can be stopped by a miracle, the last great battle for the survival of human dignity is only a matter of time and the convenience of those who will have to launch it, because they are the aggressors. The United States, if war comes, will be the defender at the outset—but no longer than is required to rally power to gain the initiative. Americans are afraid of war when they see it coming, but not after it arrives.

Managerial Shift

TRANSFER of Leo Durocher from the Dodgers to the New York Giants comes as a surprise to baseball fans. Justified or not, the names of Leo and the Dodgers had become synonymous with aggressive and sometimes rowdy baseball. Leo also had become closely identified with Brooklyn, a borough noted for such acrid idioms as "dem bums."

Now that Durocher has transfered his allegiance, it might be well to re-evaluate the whole Brooklyn tradition. For one thing, attendance figures don't bear out the reputed loyalty of most Brooklynites.

A good cause can be made out for allowing Brooklyn to return to the comparative anonymity shared by Staten Island and Queens. Brooklyn's comic status was a wartime phenomenon fostered by Army camp show comedians and nurtured by radio announcers interviewing soldiers from Brooklyn. The war's over.

Presenting the Platform

TO ADD zip to its convention this week, the Wallace party will use a new idea in offering its platform to the delegates. The labor plank will be read by a man in working clothes, the military plank by serviceman in uniform, the civil rights plank by a Negro, etc.

There's no word yet on who will read the foreign policy plank. It wouldn't be William Z. Foster, would it?

Public Works Backlog

THE cost of needed street and highway construction, airport development, housing and public buildings is figured at 120 billions. That's the estimate of Dr. E. Jay Howenstine, government economist writing in the American Economic Review.

Mr. Howenstein, for example, estimates highway and airport improvements at $30,200,000,000, public buildings at $12,150,000,000, recreations centers at $7,500,000,000 and housing at $8,000,000,000.

This is a backlog of projects to stabilize employment if the industrial machine slackens. But more than that, it's a program which must be worked at even in times of full employment. At the slow rate these improvements are being made, needs are piling up faster than they are being met.

Convalescent Europe

THE United Nations World, an international magazine, sees better times in Europe. Barring another upheaval, it predicts complete recovery for Belgium in 1950, for France in 1952 and for Britain in 1955.

Although prices are high, it reports food more plentiful. Shoes and clothing are beginning to come through in quantity. The housing shortage is easing.

But the magazine's observer says the greatest improvement is in the people's morale. A subdued optimism is replacing nervousness and worry. This last observation was made before the Berlin situation had deteriorized to its present state. It would be tragic if this latest cancer were to strike down the patient just as the faint blush of health was beginning to appear.

Elmer, the Give Away Man

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

ELMER G. LETTERMAN, "the give away man," has earned a fortune on one principle—the more you help others the more you help yourself.

They don't have to ask "Where's Elmer?" in the insurance field. He's at the top.

"I may not be the biggest life insurance salesman in the world," he says, "but I'm the best known."

HAL BOYLE

This would be hard to dispute. Elmer, at 50, has shaken hands with more celebrities than any man except Grover Whalen. He's as familiar on the Great White Way as Father Duffy's statue.

And thousands of people, who reached out to shake hands with him, have drawn back their paw with a life insurance policy in it. In 25 years Elmer has sold some $35,000,000 worth of individual policies and $300,000,000 in group policies.

This has netted him $1,500,000 or more for himself.

How does he do it?

Bullfrog Love

The Government Printing Office is having some trouble about a pamphlet entitled "The Love Life of a Bullfrog," the trouble arising out of the fact that no such publication exists. Every so often the printing office denies the existence of the pamphlet, but the more it denies it the more the orders come in.

This misunderstanding between the printing office and the reading public began a long while back when a member of Congress said sarcastically that the government published just about everything but "The Love Life of a Bullfrog." Orders commenced pouring in. Various steps were taken to correct the misapprehension but none of the steps did any good and some of them did harm, in the form of further orders.

It ought to be plain enough by now that there is really only one way out of the dilemma. The demand for a pamphlet on "The Love Life of a Bullfrog" exists. The supply does not. In the fair name of supply and demand, by golly the Government Printing Office ought to get out a "Love Life of a Bullfrog," and meet this widespread democratic demand.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Oil Hunt Resumed

By The Associated Press

MUNICH — The acute fuel oil shortage in Germany has caused geologists to resume their search for oil in the Bavarian mountains.

Years of researches which were halted during the war convinced geologists that oil can be found in the deeper soil in the mountain area. Test drillings are under way in several parts of this American-occupied state, newspapers report, but results are said to be meager.

The only active oil wells in Germany, in the British-occupied region around Hannover, have very small yields.

"Well, I never smoked, drank, bet on a horse or played golf in my life," Elmer told me just a few years ago.

"You don't have to do those things to be successful."

His Formula

Elmer, a short, plumpish, balding man, does it by casting his bread on the waters of friendship.

"Keep on doing little things that keep people talking about you," he said. And his idea of the best way to keep yourself in the other fellow's mind is to do him a personal favor.

Letterman sends carloads of toys a year to the children of Hawaii, his adopted home. He gives away tens of thousands of match books, hundreds of fountain pens and lipsticks, dozen of radios, scores of fine leather wallets.

"I hardly ever talk business," he said. He has a real passion for meeting and helping people. Somehow the business follows, too, and often in a way Letterman can't explain.

"I got $1,000,000 in business from one man in doing him a favor I don't even remember," he said.

Was Prodigal Host

Some years ago Letterman was one of Manhattan's favorite party throwers. He spent as much as $1,000 a night for the fun of watching the celebrities he admires enjoy themselves.

Now he prefers a quieter life and gets his pleasure in giving presents. He likes cops and has given $1,000 paid-up insurance policies to 100 policemen.

Elmer has sold policies to big-name people like Jack Dempsey, Mary Pickford, Ronald Colman, Paul Whiteman, Jane Withers, John Barrymore and Rudolph Valentino. Barrymore took out a $2,000,000 policy.

Letterman also insured Harpo Marx's hands for $500,000 and Jimmy Durante's nose for $100,000. In similar publicity stunts he insured Adolphe Menjou's mustache and Charlie Chaplin's walk. But the backbone of his business is smaller policies.

Takes 'Em All

"I figure the small man of today is the big man of tomorrow," said Elmer. "There's nothing too small for us to insure—even bicycles and roller skates."

The smile fades off Elmer's face when young college graduates who come to him for help admit they don't know what they want to do.

"Come back when you do know what you want," he says. "Then I can help you."

Elmer has always known what he wanted. He left home at 14. At 19 he was making $25,000 a year selling woolen goods.

"My hobby is meeting people," he said, "and I like to make money for the satisfaction of spending it."

Daily Bible Thought

The Bible identifies the creator with the spirit of wisdom! The functions of the human body are so complex that no mortal knows much about them, but the Creator knows all about them. He planned them. "Council is mine and sound wisdom; I am understanding." Pr. 8:14.

Scanning the Record

By George E. Sokolsky

The 80th Congress As a Campaign Target

IT IS NOW clear that the principal target of Democratic oratory during the campaign will be the Eightieth congress, its achievements and shortcomings. President Truman called it the worst congress; Senator Barkley in his keynote speech hit at it with all the rounded oratory of a Kentuckian. Sam Rayburn sank to a new low in the oratory of the trivial in his attacks on that congress. It is understandable that the Democrats would hold the Eightieth congress accountable, it is also undeniable that the Republicans must stand by that congress and defend it. It is not necessary for the debate to be cheap, vulgar or untruthful.

SOKOLSKY

In the first place, whereas the Republicans had a clear and unmistakable majority in the house of representatives, they only had an organizational majority in the senate. This is one of the complexities of the American Constitutional system which tends to weaken party leadership and party responsibility. Whatever measures, therefore, were passed in the senate by the so-called Republican majority were really passed by a coalition of Republican and Democratic votes which made up for the Republican defections. The Taft-Hartley bill was passed in both houses by such a coalition.

Senator Barkley indicated the nature of the Democratic attack on the Eightieth congress. First and foremost will be opposition to the Taft-Hartley act.

Error Repeated

In hitting at that the Democrats are repeating the error of the Republicans in 1932, when they assumed that there was still another victory in prohibition. The Democrats apparently believe that there is still another victory in the tie-up between their party and the labor leaders. The Republicans will respond by pointing to the large number of Democrats who on every ballot voted for the Taft-Hartley bill, but even more, they will point to the fact that the law does work. If, as Senator Barkley indicated, the Democrats are to attack this congress on the record of the Taft-Hartley act, the Republicans ought to welcome the attack.

The next object of attack will be the Republican promise of economy, reduction of taxes and the firing of unnecessary bureaucrats. There Senator Barkley was unfair and he knew it. After the Republicans had cut the budget and reduced the taxes, the administration created what amounted to a war scare. It was Mr. Truman who let the Army, Navy and Air Forces down after the peace, reducing staff and personnel with an unconscionable rapidity. Then when the Eightieth congress gave the American taxpayer some relief, Secretary of Air Symington let out a howl that the Russians have a larger air force than the United States has. This scared the American people, although Symington never produced indisputable evidence as to the fact. Congress took his word for it as it took the word of the state department concerning foreign aid in the form of the Marshall Plan, ERP, ECA, and lots of other things which cost money.

Barkley's Allegations

Now along comes Senator Barkley and says that because the Eightieth congress did not refuse funds to the administration for foreign aid and national defense, the Eightieth congress failed to achieve the economies it set out to provide.

Furthermore, on the matter of bureaucrats, Senator Barkley's definition was clever and facetious, but it failed to say that the Eightieth congress and the President appointed a commission headed by Herbert Hoover to consider the reorganization of the executive branch of the government; that one-third of the commission was appointed by the President, the speaker and the president of the senate respectively, that by agreement this commission was to make no report until after election day so that its findings could not be used for political purposes. Senator Barkley knows that his party, along with all constructive citizens, is deeply concerned over the sprawling, duplicative, excessively staffed administration—and that is why the Hoover commission came into being.

Why then did he pull that wisecrack about bureaucrats? To get a rise out of the convention? To draw applause? To start cheering among a roomful of Democrats? Well, he got what he wanted—but it was not the truth. It was just campaign talk.

How To Get Hooked

From News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO.

It was Tuesday, July 19, 1938.

Douglas G. "Daredevil" Corrigan, 31-year-old Californian who flew the wrong way and landed in Ireland, was comfortably sleeping at the American legation in Dublin. His $900 "crate" that took him the 3,150 miles from New York to Dublin between 4:17 a. m. the preceding Sunday and 9:30 a. m. Monday was locked up at Baldonnel to safeguard it from souvenir hunters.

William Mader, chief of the Bucyrus fire department for 50 years, was honored at a testimonial dinner given at the Elks club by city officials and officials from adjoining towns. Chief T. J. McFarland, who had been honored at a similar dinner the preceding week, was one of the speakers at the banquet.

Mrs. E. H. Poorman was hostess to the Colonial club at Hotel Marion.

Al Pridday of Chicago, guest speaker at the weekly luncheon of the Rotary club, told his audience his experiences "under the big top" had convinced him that animals can and do think. His associations with the circus covered that of entertainer, publicity agent and executive.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Van Hellen of Monrovia, Calif., who were visiting relatives and friends here, were honor guests at a potluck supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harriman of the Delaware pike.

First steps in a proposed plan to construct a municipal waterworks system at Caledonia were announced by Mayor R. F. Highly, who reported that a Columbus engineering firm had been retained to make a preliminary survey of the cost and type of construction.

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

It was Thursday, July 19, 1928.

William G. Pickrel, lieutenant governor of Ohio, was speaker at the Kiwanis club luncheon. He cited waste of public funds due to antiquated methods and lack of business administration.

After dragging through the county and federal courts for more than four years, the Burr Raichley will case was settled during the course of a trial in Wyandot county. Under terms of the settlement relatives of Raichley were to receive $60,000 out of an estate amounting to $175,000. The will left the bulk of the estate, with the exception of $5,000 to the federated women's clubs of Marion, to the Marion Masonic Temple company.

Marion police were looking for the "meanest thief" who stole $1.75 from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bill, Marion blind couple.

A statewide search was in progress for Harry Zillick and Wilbur Hand, convicted at Bucyrus of robbing the Galion Commercial Savings Bank, after the court of appeals announced it could find no error in their convictions. Hand and Zillick, both free on $25,000 bond furnished by Bucyrus men, were reported missing.

Mrs. M. G. McCormick, Washington, D. C., was a guest of her cousin, Mrs. Sara Howser of Pearl street. Mrs. McCormick was called here by the serious illness of her uncle, W. H. Sprague.

One Night's Work

By Walter Lippmann

IN the annals of the American government the scene enacted by Mr. Truman in the middle of the night at the close of the Democratic convention is unique in its disrespect for the dignity of his office and the proprieties of the Constitution. It was not pretty to think of the President of the United States hanging around backstage for hours, waiting to accept a nomination which had not yet been tendered to him. Even though he knew that the convention had no alternative but to nominate him, a decent respect for the forms of democracy would have told him that until the delegates had voted, they were in principle free to make another choice, and that, like Governor Dewey, who waited in his hotel, he must not enter the hall.

LIPPMANN

But his action when he appeared before the delegates was an even more flagrant departure from the standards of conduct which the President of the United States is in honor bound to observe. In the early hours of the morning, in the presence of a disorderly partisan meeting, Mr. Truman announced that he was convening the congress for the purpose of promoting his own election.

The President, says the Constitution, "may, on extraordinary occasions, convene both houses."

Really Extraordinary

A more extraordinary occasion than this one it would be difficult to imagine; a deliberate avowed effort to make the voters believe that they must choose, not between a Truman administration and a Dewey administration, but between Truman's legislative proposals and the legislative record of the Eightieth congress; that because Harry S. Truman cannot lead this congress, Mr. Dewey will not want to lead and will not be able to lead the next congress.

The congress belongs to the whole people, not to a party, and it is an abuse of the Constitutional power of the President to convene it in extraordinary session under these circumstances and for these purposes. Mr. Truman cannot even pretend that the public interest compelled him to call the special session. For if his main concern were inflation and housing, he would have told congress when it adjourned that he would call it back as soon as the conventions were over. He would never have waited to announce that decision until he could use it to give a kick and a punch to his own personal campaign for election.

Evidence of Inconsistency

Were his interest in the measures he mentioned sincere in the sense that he wants them enacted, he would have told the Republican and Democratic leaders of congress weeks ago that they must stay in Washington all summer to deal with them. He did not do that. He did not even stay in Washington himself during the crucial weeks at the end of the session, working as the President can and should to lead his own party and to bring about agreement with the other party. Mr. Truman's actions are not those of a man who wants congress to legislate but of a man who wants to fight congress because he has figured it out that he can do better against Martin, Taber, Allen, and Halleck than against Dewey and Warren.

The most serious aspect of the matter is the disclosure of how thin and fragile are the safeguards and restraints of his own conception of the public interest, how secondary and subordinate they are likely to be in the strategy and tactics of his campaign. The Truman platform on the subject of foreign affairs is alarming. For just as the calling of the special session is a reckless and frantic effort to exploit domestic issues for partisan ends, so in this section of the platform there are all the indications that the international crisis may also be exploited for partisan ends.

The platform is a scandal of ingratitude, ungenerosity, and untruth. The Truman administration claims the sole credit for the United Nations charter and the European recovery program, as if Mr. Truman could have achieved them without the labors of Senator Vandenberg and Mr. Dulles, without the active influence of Mr. Dewey and Mr. Stassen.

The question is what else Mr. Truman will do if some smart adviser tells him he can get some votes. There is no knowing. A man who in one night will call a special session of congress in order to precipitate a fight on domestic issues and will knock the moral foundations from under the bi-partisan foreign policy, has cast away the restraints which would make his actions predictable.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

The Rival Campaign Shows

The popcorn, peanuts and lemonade carnivals, named party conventions, have folded and the road companies are now assembling. It is Truman and Barkley in "A Trailer Named Desire" versus Dewey and Warren in "Make Mine Pennsylvania Avenue."

The crisis is that in order to win the Democrats will have to get Oscar Hammerstein to rewrite the script and add numbers by Berlin and Rodgers.

PHILLIPS

They say the show should be called "Life Without Father," or "Franklin In the Wings."

They contend that the Dewey production has everything Ringling Brothers have except the Night Before Christmas Pageant and Gargantua, and that put up against the Democratic offering it is like "Oklahoma" versus the flea circus. But strange things happen in the world of politics and entertainment. The old saying, "Never count the gross receipts before you read the morning-after reviews," still good advice.

• • •

Many a show has clicked despite bad previews and many an entertainment that was called a fire on the road flopped in the ultimate test. The one big advantage the Dewey-Warren production has is that no show has ever run 16 years without boring the cash customers.

• • •

This department doesn't think the Democrats could win this time if they added the original cast of "Harvey," gave away free dishes, and admitted women and children free. But there's no business as uncertain as show business except election business, and you never can tell.

• • •

Harry Truman emerged from the Democratic Convention as the most dignified, gamest and most appealing figure, thanks to the quaint conduct of the opposition. He won sympathy just as a theater straw wins it when the rest of the cast tries to give him the works and even the stagehands drop sandbags from the flies. You can't dislike him any more than you could dislike Denman Thompson in, "The Old Homestead."

• • •

He was called on four years ago to step into a leading part played to the hilt for 12 years by one of the greatest matinee idols, all around showmen and top scene-stealers of all time. Could Clifton have succeeded the leading man in "Three Men on a Horse?" We ask you!

• • •

Harry was the pitcher called in when the bases were full, the fighter sent in for the emergency bout, and the pianist called to substitute for the Toscanini orchestra. He never knew whether he was acting as a President or being used as a floating target.

• • •

And on top of all that, the law of averages, the turn of the wheel, the theory of cycles and the human desire for a change in billing all worked against him. Even people who had been for tarring and feathering all Republicans for years began wanting to trade in the old model for something new.

• • •

The Republicans, farther north for 16 years than Peary or Cook ever got, suddenly found the ice thawing on the wings. And now there is every indication that they can safely discard their snowsuits, throw away their pemmican supplies and reach for a White House instead of an igloo.

• • •

We shall see what we shall see. And whatever happens it can't make a worse impression than the video flashes of Party Conventions.

Nothing makes dandier reading for darlings who are growing old, silver threads among the gold, ha-ha, than cheerful little stories about geriatrics.

That's a word to get acquainted with. It means the subdivision of medical science that purses its lips about the problems of advancing age and comes up with reassuring answers, to-wit:

"Ah yes, I see. Born 45 years ago next month. Hmmm. Better let me test your knee reflexes. That's strange—can't find any. Just sit over here for a minute and we'll wrap this thing around your arm and see about that blood pressure. Wow.

"Now just unbutton that shirt and we'll take a few soundings. Tap, tap. Tap, tap. Now a few on the back. Tap, tap. Tap, tap. Tsch, tsch. Ever feel any pains in there? Well, well. Suppose we listen to that heart for a few minutes. Kindly breathe through your mouth."

And so on. Machines to test this and that. Candid X-ray shots from all angles. Recommended diets. Get rid of all fat, also all bad habits and become attached to good ones. Take one of the lavender pills three times a day, two of the green ones before retiring and a white one before breakfast.

Flatten the tummy and expand the chest. Eat more steak at a buck a bite, lay off starches, get plenty of rest, cut out tobacco, don't neglect posture, be kind to the stomach, cease worrying, breathe deeply, hold the head high and come back next month for another checkup and pay as you leave.

That's the way it's going to be done under geriatrics, becoming more important because by 1980 (only 32 years away) almost half the population will be over 45. Old age is going to be a bonanza for professional advice about its care, feeding, pains and fears.

The over-45ers will have a strong union—strong in numbers and strong in determination to be healthy and happy though half dead. There will be the wildest scramble for eternal youth since the days of Ponce de Leon. Doctors will specialize in pampering the old just as many now specialize in telling mamas what to do about the young. Life will go from pediatrics to geriatrics—consultations by appointment only—come early and enjoy our magazines that were new when you were young—listen to our prize recording of "Nature Boy" (remember?) and enjoy our pictures of Lana Turner and Van Heflin. Remember—we cash pension checks, furnish wheel chairs and sell batteries for hearing aids.

That will be geriatrics, pronounced jerry-ah-tricks. And how are tricks with you, grampa?

Marion's Historical Quarry Street Cemetery To Be Maintained by City

The recent inclusion of the Quarry street cemetery in the maintenance program of the city park system by Safety-service Director E. O. Uncapher brings to mind the part this old, and little known cemetery in the downtown district played in Marion's darkest days.

Ninety-four years ago tomorrow July 20 1854 the local train from Crestline came puffing into town and an immigrant family from the east disembarked. They wanted a small house on East Center street where the Cussins and Fearn store now stands. One of that immigrant family carried the germ which almost destroyed the then budding village of Marion. That germ contained the dread disease "Asiatic cholera.

Sanitation and health facilities were pretty sketchy then and the plague spread like wildfire. Ten persons died the first week and although most of the 1,700 residents of the village fled in terror of their lives at least 65 persons died of the disease. All of these who were Marion people were buried in the old Quarry street cemetery. Later some of these were exhumed and moved to new resting places in the Marion cemetery which was started in 1857. Historical accounts of the plague are brief but they do state a damp mist blanketed the city each night while the dread cholera took its toll, which as Jacoby's history puts it "The list of dead included some of the village's most promising and substantial citizens, 65 of whom succumbed to the dread disease."

Went Into Decline

The Quarry street cemetery started to decline in popularity as a burying ground for a number of reasons. It was not large enough, it was not properly located, no system of care was available, nor had anyone here at that time the facilities to repair and care for the grounds. In those days lawnmowers were virtually unknown and some people kept their family plots clean by scythes and sickles while others just didn't bother.

According to Leggett and Conway's Marion county history, 1883 edition the unsuitability of the old burying ground was first brought to public attention by an anonymous correspondent of the "Independent", a weekly newspaper of the times. This correspondent signed his articles with the non de plume "Israel Fishbones" and in graphic style he pictured the regular occurence of funerals interrupted by passing trains, or by almost tragedies in the saloons adjoining the overgrown graveyard. He also advised local citizenry of the unkempt condition, crowded lots, poor drainage, and unsavory district in which the cemetery was located. These articles effectively roused local indignation with the cemetery situation which resulted in the formation of the "Marion Cemetery Association" July 3, 1857.

First Burial Ground

The first burial ground in Marion antedated the Quarry street cemetery by many years and the date of its origin is unknown. It was a privately owned and operated plot on a lot owned by the Berry family on what was then East street near Canal (now State and Columbia streets). Very few burials were made here before Ebar Babtz, Marion's founding father saw the need of a public cemetery and donated the land now the site of the Quarry street cemetery.

The old cemetery was little cared for until a public campaign for funds some years ago by public spirited citizens. But it again was allowed to "return to the jungle". As a local landmark and historical site within the city it was recently included in the park maintenance project by Mayor Harry L. Dowler and Safety Service Director E. O. Uncapher. Since that time city crews have kept the grounds cleared mowed, and in top condition befitting the site of Marion's first public cemetery.

Romance Revived After Lapse of Fifty Years

By The United Press

AUBURN, N. Y.—A romance, interrupted by a lovers' quarrel 50 years ago, has been climaxed in marriage.

The bride, Mrs. Bertha Swain, formerly of Auburn, flew the Atlantic to England to marry E. R. Swain, her sweetheart of a half-century ago.

It was her third marriage.

The couple had been engaged when they were in service together as housemaid and butler but there was a misunderstanding. They parted and the girl came to the United States, relatives here said.

Some time ago Swain, twice a widower, met a brother of his early love and a letter of reunion followed.

Taxpayers Get Break On College Buildings

By The United Press

AMHERST, Mass.—The University of Massachusetts, state-owned and operated, will have almost $3,000,000 worth of new building by 1960, and all for nothing.

The gift will come from the Alumni Building Corporation, a private concern organized by university graduates, which has built or is planning to build $2,850,000 worth of buildings on the school's 700-acre main campus.

By 1969 the buildings, providing living quarters for students and faculty will have paid off their original cost and current upkeep by a self-liquidating process and will become the sole property of the state without cost to the taxpayer.

Busy Beaver Evens Up for Lost Sticks

By The United Press

NEWBURGH, N. Y. — John Orth, director of the Trailside Museum at Bear Mountain, tells a story about a beaver and some boys.

Each night the beaver deposited a pile of sticks on a lake dock near a boys' camp, he relates. Each morning, the boys used the sticks for their camp fires.

That went on for some time, until one morning the boys looked for the expected pile of sticks, only to find their dock floating out in the lake.

The beaver took his revenge by gnawing away the pilings under the dock.

PET SHOW HELD AT ARMY PLAYGROUND

Dogs, Cat, Chickens, Ducks and Gold Fish Entered.

Saturday morning the Salvation Army playground was the scene of lively barking activity. A pet show scheduled for 10 o'clock attracted 24 dogs and included in this number was a family of five puppies. Other pets entered were two ducks, two roosters, one kitten, and a bowl of goldfish. Many of the animals were cleverly dressed and they were surprisingly docile considering the warmness of the day.

The children and their pets paraded around the playground while Harry Chambers and Edith Bolt, judges, made their decisions. First prize for best dressed dog went to Irene Carr, whose dog Smokey wore a clown suit and tiny straw hat. Clark Kent Gear also received a first prize for the most unusual pet. His entry was a bowl of goldfish proudly pulled about in a decorated wagon. Other prize winners were Verna Fay Nolan, most handsome dog; Stella Gee, second best dressed dog; Billy Gates, best behaved pet, a rabbit; Donald Conley, prettiest cat; and Wilma Taylor, cleverest dog.

First prize winners were awarded blue ribbons and the other five children red ones. All seven were presented with tickets for the ball game between Marion Cubs and Zanesville at Lincoln park, July 20. Each child who entered a pet in the show received a can of juice to take home to his family. There were 48 persons in attendance.

Is Unwanted Hair Hiding Your Natural Beauty and Charm?

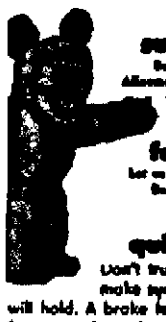

Superfluous hair causes so much unhappiness that it changes the mental attitude of those that have it—gives them a dark outlook on life—changes them from a carefree person to a nervous, shy person, because they are always trying to hide their face from the people that they meet. No matter how well you are dressed, or how you apply your make up, you cannot keep superfluous hair from being seen. No case is too far advanced, if you tweeze, shave, or use other methods to remove the hair temporarily you owe it to yourself, your family and friends to have the hair permanently removed by electrolysis, the only method endorsed by physicians everywhere.

All work is done by appointment, from 1:30 to 9 p. m. Phone 5325 during these hours for appointment or write for free information. There is no charge for private consultation. I use the Brantronic Short Wave system on the legs and arms and it removes around 1,000 hairs per hour. On the face I use the Kree ten needle machine for coarse hairs, and it removes around 120 hairs per hour. The charge for either machine is $5 per hour. Work done for men and women.

Why go through your life being unhappy because you have superfluous hair when you can have it permanently removed?

Expert Says Baby Shows Its Personality Early

By DAVID TAYLOR MARKE
Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK — The doubting Thomas who pooh poohs a parent's proud claim that his baby is different from others may have to change his tune now

Babies are different, says Dr Arnold Gesell noted child specialist and founder director of The Clinic of Child Development at Yale university Even during the first year of life they have personalities of their own

Dr Gesell has just written a book "Studies in Child Development in which he reports the results of a five-year study on the human infant.

Makes Movie Record

Using motion pictures to record every movement of the infant, Dr Gesell says that as early as the ages of 8 and 12 weeks, he was able to discern the highly dynamic personality of "Boy D" After a full year of observation, he was able to characterize Boy D's individuality as "quick, active, happy friendly, well adjusted vigorous, forceful, alert, inquisitive Although he was definitely extrovertive he showed at the early age of 24 weeks a surprising discriminativeness in reading the facial expressions of his mother By the age of 28 weeks he had developed a moderate temper technique for influencing domestic situations which did not altogether please him He was able to shift quickly in his emotional response from smiling to crying to achieve a desired end

Dr Gesell warns that "our findings must not be over-generalized but they strongly indicate that certain fundamental traits of individuality whatever their origin, exist early persist late and assert themselves under varying environmental conditions"

Learning from Children

Parents should enjoy their tots says Dr James L Hymes Professor of Education and Coordinator of Early Childhood Education at the State Teachers College, New Paltz, N Y

In a pamphlet issued by the Public Affairs Committee entitled "Enjoy Your Child—Ages 1 2, and 3, Dr Hymes asserts that parents can learn quite a bit about children from children In fact, they can learn more than they can teach because babies know what is best for them.

A child wants to do only what needs to be done explains Dr Hymes When his bones and muscles are strong enough—the age depends on the individual and not on the calendar—he will begin to walk, to talk to feed himself to dress himself There's nothing you can do to speed up this process

Some parents" says Dr Hymes, hold out on their children too much because they are afraid they will spoil them They comfort them too little hold them too little joke with them too little"

Don't ask your child what he thinks are foolish questions such as, Don't you want to pick up your toys dear" Dr Hymes emphasizes The most important words but they are not yet verbal and that's the answer you'd probably get What seems like a stubborn streak will probably vanish if you make flat statements instead, the booklet says Better still skip the talk and do what you want the child to do

"If it is time to pick up toys pitch in and begin picking them up" Dr Hymes says "Children 1 and 2 and 3 are fast learning words, but they are not yet verbal They are action people They respond better to what you do than to what you say

"If you're a youngster too often that's bad or naughty he can come to feel that he has lost your love And once that happens he has lost his most important reason for wanting to be good"

Parents interested in teaching their children music can do so the "play way" says Lottie Elsworth Coit and Ruth Hampton in Follow The Music a book for four-to-nine-year-olds just published.

Educationally speaking, say the authors, they help to develop in the mind and body of the child a feeling of co-ordination quick response alertness and cooperation in group participation

ADVICE TO DIABETICS

● Beware of patent medicines advertised as cures or remedies for diabetes! They often are not reliable. Diabetes was first recognized about 1552 B.C. This was about the time of Moses, or 200 years before the birth of King Tut. Ever since that time, at intervals, some faker comes up with a cure. A dependable treatment for diabetes was discovered only twenty years ago. It will not cure the disease, but it will enable the diabetic to live a normal life. The discovery is known as Insulin. Your doctor knows all about it If he finds it necessary in your case, we can supply it in just the right strength.

FARES RAISED TODAY BY RAILROADS HERE

Passenger Rates Increased 20 Per Cent.

The New York Central and Erie railroad systems here joined other rail transportation systems in the northeast section of the country in the raise of passenger rates, effective today. The Chesapeake & Ohio system hike in fare goes into effect at midnight tonight, Robert H. Stief, agent at the Union station reported today.

The increase calls for a 20 per cent rise for coaches and 14.3 for Pullman service for points east of Chicago and north of the Ohio in this area.

The new rates became effective as the vacation season went into full swing with the greatest countrywide demand in years, for rail, bus and airplane service, a United Press dispatch reports.

However, transportation officials said the postwar increase in equipment of all types is making it possible to accommodate all travelers. Only on holidays, they said, are reservations a real problem.

The new rail rates are effective roughly in the area east of the Mississippi and north of the Ohio and Potomac rivers. They were authorized by the interstate commerce commission on grounds the carriers are "justly entitled" to the $81,000,000 in additional yearly revenue.

The same railroads were granted a 10 per cent increase a year ago. Their fares are now three cents a mile in coaches and four cents in pullmans.

STOCK MARKET FALLS AS TRADE INCREASES

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, July 19—A weakened stock market fell rapidly today with trading volume so high that the ticker tape was late twice during the first hour.

Oil stocks, which had been leaders in last month's bull market rise, suffered a severe sinking spell that carried them from $2 to as much as $9 a share lower. Superior Oil of California dropped $18 a share to $200, an exceptionally wide swing because of its high price.

Losses covered almost the entire list and included automobile manufacturers, railroads, steel companies and metals.

One bright spot was the steadiness of aircraft makers and airlines. Prices changed only a few cents in either direction.

Brokers were at a loss to explain the sudden rush to unload so-called "quality" stocks except that the foreign news became more gloomy over the weekend and the desire was strong to cash in on profits built up during the protracted spring and summer bull market.

Particularly hard hit were Mission Corp., United States Steel, General Motors, Chrysler, Illinois Central, Union Pacific, Standard Oil (NJ), Gulf Oil, Kennecott Copper and Phelps Dodge.

PORTUGUESE DETAIN U.S. FLYING FORTRESS

By The Associated Press

SANTA MARIA, AZORES, July 19—A mysterious Flying Fortress carrying 18 Americans and presumably headed for Palestine landed here yesterday and was promptly detained by Portuguese authorities.

The airplane, ordered back to the United States from Canada, had filed a flight plan to Boston before taking off from Halifax, N. S.

One of the Americans aboard has no passport. Portuguese officials said they detained the plane under an international rule concerning undocumented craft.

The flight from Halifax took about 11 hours. The plane did not carry a full load of gas and had to make the 1,500-mile flight at reduced speed. One engine cowling was missing. It carried no radio transmitter and only two parachutes.

The airplane was impounded in Halifax a week ago by customs officials after reports that the nine men aboard when it landed there were headed for Palestine to join the Israeli air force. It was released Thursday but mechanical difficulties prevented its return to Westchester county, N. Y.

War Threat Viewed By London Press

By The Associated Press

LONDON July 19—The London Press surveying the Berlin situation spoke frankly today of the danger of war between Russia and the west

The war of nerves is reaching its height said the London Times adding

The challenge in Berlin requires immediate and clear decision So long as the Russians remain obdurate the dangers will mount

"Each side is being driven on to the point where an open clash might become unavoidable

Neither side desires war yet as measures and counter measures increase the combination of an incident and a rising belief that only force can settle the issue might produce a clash beyond control

We are delighted to welcome the American airmen who this weekend returned to airfields in Britain labor's pro-government Daily Herald announced adding

No one on this side of the iron curtain wants war But, equally no one here is prepared to be bullied in defiance of agreements."

Russians Preparing For Force, Is Report

By International News Service

BERLIN, July 19 The American controlled Berlin radio station RIAS reported today that the Soviets have started to rip up sections of the Berlin Helmstedt railway line to defeat in advance any allied attempt to break the blockade by force

The report was broadcast coincident with dispatches from Frankfurt saying that American military leaders are conferring with British and French experts on the plan

Known as "operation covered wagon" the scheme would call for dispatch of an armored supply train or heavily armed convoys through the Soviet zone

If a train were sent it would be compelled to use the Helmstedt spur which the Russians blocked off to allied traffic weeks ago on the grounds that repairs are needed

German oil companies are sawing old submarine hulls in half and standing them on end for oil storage tanks

American Legion Junior Baseball Team Wins District Championship

Locals Defeat Newark Twice At Lincoln Park To Win the Title

By BILL DIEM

Marion's Bird-McGinnis Post-Mercury Motor Sales Junior American Legion baseball team won the Sixth District championship and the right to play in the state tournament in August by defeating the Newark Juniors in two games at Lincoln park yesterday.

Set down by Newark 5-2 Saturday morning, the Marion nine remained in the six-county district tournament by nipping Sunbury 5-2 Saturday afternoon and walked off with the title by defeating Newark 4-3 and 7-1 in yesterday's doubleheader.

Two losses meant an out in the double-elimination tourney and the locals had to fight 11 innings in the first game to stay in the running.

It was tough to get hits in the extra-inning opener. Don Thomas of Newark and Jim Edington of Marion pitching tight eight-hit ball.

Newark Takes Lead

A hit and a Marion error gave Newark a one-run lead in the second and they extended their lead to three in the fourth when touching Edington for three hits and capitalizing on another Marion miscue but the locals tied it up in the last of the fourth with three hits and two errors producing three runs. And from there out lefty Thomas and Edington pitched two-hit, goose-egg ball.

Until the last of the eleventh that is when George Stoffer and Jim Seiler singled in succession Seiler's blow scoring Stoffer from second with the winning run.

That put Newark and Marion on even terms with a loss apiece necessitating a second game.

Marion Coach Nelson (Ninnie) Irvin picked Clyde Seedle to work the finale, and the right-hander are handled the job brilliantly limiting the Newarks to three hits over the nine-inning route while the local nine pounded Ron Pipes and Woody Woodyard for 11 and capitalized on five Newark errors for their 7-1 victory.

Rain Shutout

Singles by Sam Ventura and Don Williams and a passed ball in the fourth inning gave Newark the run that kept Seedle from notching a shutout.

All of the Marion men hit safely, save Ron Gorby, in the second game, Stoffer leading the parade with three blows in three trips. His double and Dick Roseberry's triple were the only extra base hits of the game.

Marion, by virtue of a flipped coin in the first game, batted first in the second and led off with a two-run attack. They chased Pipes off the mound with a three-run outburst in the second and scored single runs in the fifth and seventh innings off Woodyard.

The Legion's Sixth District commander, Tom Campbell of Mt Gilead presented pitcher Roy Jahn of Sunbury an award as the most valuable player in the tournament in between game ceremonies. Jahn hurled 31 innings of baseball in two days of the tournament which was played at Newark Friday and Saturday.

THE "HOLE-IN ONE" home run struck in the Marion game at Newark Saturday morning was credited to the wrong Thomas in Saturday's Star. It was Don Thomas of Newark who rounded the sacks on the disappearing ball. He hit to right field and when Marion's Emmett Bell raced over to retrieve it it was gone. Dropped into a post hole and the umps ruled it a homer though Marion didn't think it should have been. The two runs it produced turned out to be the winning runs. Ron Larson limited Sunbury to four hits in pitching Marion to the 5-2 win over Sunbury in the Saturday afternoon game and meanwhile the Marions reached Jahn of Sunbury for six hits bunching them effectively in the fourth for three runs and in the final two innings for single runs. Both Marion and Newark played fine ball Sunday though the Newark defense cracked in the early innings of the second game.

SEEREY CLOUTS WAY INTO RECORD BOOKS

Joins Four Others Who Hit 4 Homers a Game.

By The Associated Press

James Patrick Seerey of the Chicago White Sox has slugged his way into major league baseball's home run record book alongside [illegible] Gehrig, Ed Delahanty, Bobby Lowe and Chuck Klein.

The [illegible] belted four home runs in one game yesterday to become the fifth big leaguer to achieve that feat.

SEEREY

This one man slugging rampage overshadowed other important Sunday results such as Cleveland's [illegible] four-game sweep from Washington [illegible] 6-4 to increase the Indians first place lead in the American league to a game and a half and the Boston Braves two triumphs over Pittsburgh 10-2 and 3-1 which gave them an eight-game bulge in the National league pennant race.

Last Blow Wins

Seerey belted his four home runs in an 11-inning game in which the White Sox defeated the Philadelphia Athletics 12-11 in the first game of a double header. The A's captured the second game 6-1 with the Sunday 7 p. m. curfew halting proceedings after five innings.

Lowe, Delehanty and Gehrig hit their four in nine-inning games. Klein cracked his four in 10 innings. Gehrig was the only other American league to accomplish the feat.

Three of Seerey's circuit clouts came in successive innings, the fourth, fifth and sixth. The fourth snapped an 11-11 tie in the 11th.

The Braves are threatening to make a shambles of the National league pennant race enjoying an eight-game lead over the Brooklyn Dodgers and St Louis Cardinals their nearest pursuers.

Nelson Potter and Jeff Heath two former American leaguer combined to lead the Braves to victory in the opener. Potter the crafty right-hander spaced seven hits for his first National league victory in his initial start. Heath clouted a grand slam homer to spark a five-run first inning against Elmer Riddle.

Rookie righthander Vern Bickford beated Russ Meyer in the afterpiece.

Ralph Kiner spoiled Bickford's shutout with a home run his 26th of the season and the 100th of his career.

Cleveland nosed out Washington twice to gain a full game on the second place Athletics and the third place Yankees.

Newhouser Wins 14th

Hal Newhouser who begged out of the All Star game with a sore arm, gained his 14th victory of the season, pitching the Detroit Tigers to a 5-3 first game triumph over the Yankees before 62,990 fans. The Yankees the Tigers 12-4 in the second game halted after six and a half innings because of darkness.

The fourth place Boston Red Sox moved within two and a half games of the Yankees by sweeping both ends of a doubleheader from the St Louis Browns, 12-5 and 7-6.

The Dodgers and Cardinals divided a double header before 32,761 fans the largest crowd of the season in St Louis. A home run by Terry Moore with two mates aboard in the 11th inning sent the Cards to a 6-3 victory in the opener. The Dodgers crushed the Cards, 13-4 in the second game. The split left the two clubs in a deadlock for second place but shoved them both ahead of the Pirates who dropped from second to fourth a half-game ahead of the New York Giants.

The Giants fought back to gain a split with the Reds in Cincinnati losing the opener 3-0 but coming back to win the nightcap 8-2.

The Philadelphia Phils and Chicago Cubs split a twin bill, the Cubs winning the opener 3-2 and the Phils taking the second 6-4.

George Alber, secretary of the Marion Matinee club presented the Delaware Trophy to the owners of Meding Stables Inc. and in the presentation voiced his admiration for the beautiful brown gelding, product of Lawrence Hanover and Angel Child. The gelding came out of the third slot at the three-quarter mark to begin his challenge to win handily in the first heat and led all the way in winning by a length in the second as Jess Brinkerhoff came within one of deadlocking Jim Wingfield and Walt Dispanette for second place in the winner's standings. They have six. Scotty Welch still holds the top spot with seven and Slim Shilling is high on the list with five. Lou Huber Jr., Bus Edwards, Bob Mason and Gabe Cartral each have [illegible] home [illegible] three.

Sing Song (Mikesell) placed and Clemens Abbe (Miller) paid show money. In the ninth and final race Mr. Richwood (Mason) owned by H. W. # Cubs To Spend Off Day in Drills After Losing 2 of 3 to Dodgers

The faltering Marion Cubs take a day off today but like the proverbial postman who spends his day off walking, the Bruins will spend the day drilling at Lincoln park in preparation for a home stand which begins tomorrow when the Zanesville Dodgers, victors over the Cubs in two of three weekend games come to Marion for the Rotary-Kiwanis benefit for underprivileged children.

The Dodgers scored a double win over the Cubs yesterday in Zanesville after losing Saturday night.

A two-run rally in the seventh won the opener 4-3 and in the second the Dodgers [illegible] Nick A[illegible] 2 [illegible] and took advantage [illegible] walks [illegible] 14-0.

After two were out in the first inning of the first game J. Juhasz singled and Gene Bohlea doubled him home. The Dodgers tied it up on three walks and a balk by Ram[illegible] Pee[illegible] the Dodgers [illegible] a run on three hits and Frank Marchelli took over.

In the fifth Dale Schnepf doubled and Marchelli singled him in. The Cubs went ahead in the top of the seventh with a single by Stan King, Schnepf's sacrifice and a single by Lee Bohlender.

In the last of the seventh Walt Lindsay and Rich Ant[illegible] singles. Dave Myers [illegible] Mack singled for the winning runs.

Manager Ray Hathaway was the winner.

Dick Meyers Dodger third baseman opened the Zanesville tatting in the second game with a homer over centerfield [illegible] the year. John Pulcini's double, two walks and an error gave the Dodgers two more runs.

In the fourth inning Meyers blasted his second home run of the season this time over the left field fence with Ludeo Tallevi on base.

Marion threatened several times having two men on in the second with one out two in fifth with two out, two in seventh with one out, two in eighth with one out and two in ninth with none out but couldn't get hits when needed.

Marion collected 11 hits, five of them doubles to win Saturday night's game 8 to 5. The Cubs got four hits in the second, two in the third and one in the fourth and had the advantage of some ragged outfield play by the Dodgers to roll into a 7-1 lead. Zanesville threatened in every inning except the second and filled the bases in the ninth but relief pitcher Jim Tingle fanned Dick Meyers for the game ending out.

NEW YORK—Fourteen of the college gridders signed by the New York pro football Giants to bolster their sagging attack of 1947 were playing in post season bowl games last Jan 1. And only one of the players was on a losing team—Don Ettinger of Kansas, which lost to Georgia Tech in the Orange Bowl at Miami.

REDS SPLIT WITH NEW YORK GIANTS

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI July 19 — Cincinnati's Reds who split a twin bill with the New York Giants today had the task of keeping those same Giants out of the first division.

A victory today could lift the Giants into a tie for third or fourth.

Ken (Cannonball) Raffensberger pitched his third shutout of the season yesterday as he [illegible] eight hits among the Giants to give the Reds a 3-0 [illegible]. His previous shut outs were [illegible] performances against the St. Louis Cardinals.

The New Yorkers came back in the nightcap however to [illegible] three Red pitchers for 12 hits and an 8-2 victory.

Hank Sauer whose home runs have been decreasing in frequency of late connected for his 25th circuit blow in the second game. The smash coming after Grady Hatton walked, provided the Reds only runs.

New York scored almost regularly throughout the second game as Clint Hartung and Giant newcomer Clem Dreisewerd limited the Reds to six hits.

Johnny Vander Meer had limited the Giants to six hits when he was lifted in the seventh.

A four run spurge in the ninth gave the Giants their total. A double and four singles scored three runs and sent Howard Fox to the showers and Walker Cress gave up another run before retiring the side.

SEEREY'S 4 HOMERS EARN HIM $500

By The Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA, July 19 — The four home runs pounded out by Pat Seerey in a single game yesterday meant $500 in the pocket for the big Chicago White Sox leftfielder and a raft of memories for spectator George Earnshaw.

The $500 will be handed Seerey by Charles Ziehler, a former independent baseball promoter and now a Philadelphia battery manufacturer.

Ziehler some time ago inserted a notice in the official program at the Philadelphia Athletics' Shibe Park stating that he would pay $300 to the first player on any team to hit three homers in one game and $500 for four in a single contest.

The notice was carried in the program yesterday but offering only the $300 for three homers.

However after Seerey blasted four four baggers off three A's pitchers in the first game of yesterday's twin bill, Ziehler said he planned to live up to the terms of his original offer — $500 for four circuit blows.

The memories running through the mind of George Earnshaw, former A's pitcher, as he watched Seerey's feat, took the big righthander back to July 3, 1932.

Connie Mack's Athletics were playing the New York Yankees that day and one of the biggest guns in the Yankees' lineup was first baseman Lou Gehrig.

Gehrig hit three homers in three consecutive times at bat against Earnshaw and after homer No. 3, Mack took his mound ace out of the game.

Instead of permitting Earnshaw to go to the showers, however, Mack summoned him to the bench, told him to sit down and watch while pitcher Roy Mahaffey handled the New Yorkers' first baseman.

Gehrig promptly belted out homer No. 4.

"Is that what you mean, Mr. Mack?" Earnshaw commented and walked slowly toward the clubhouse.

By The Associated Press

Yochim, who won 14 and lost 15 for Rochester last year, was with the St. Louis Cardinals in spring training this spring He was shipped back to Rochester and several weeks ago was traded to the Cardinals' farm club at Columbus for Al Patterson after an ineffective start

Yesterday he pitched and slugged Columbus to victory Yochim, whose lifetime pitching record since he broke in with Fresno, Calif., in 1941, has been 32-42 up to the start of this campaign, displayed a tantalizing slow ball against St Paul He baffled the Saints with five hits and slammed two home runs and a double to gain a 12-0 triumph

St. Paul flashed some fancy pitching itself to win the nightcap 3-0 behind Jack Paepke's six-hitter

Milwaukee swept a doubleheader from Toledo 5-4 and 3-2 to shave Indianapolis' front-running lead to 1½ games.

Nanny Fernandez scoring double in the eighth was the decisive run in the opener Al Epperly returned to winning form to cop the afterpiece and forge an 11-2 record

The Tribe split with Kansas City, winning the first 4-2 with the aid of Les Fleming's two-run homer, and losing the second 6-2 in 12 innings In the twelfth inning Flip Rosen tripled with one out and eventually was knocked home by pinch hitter Ralph Houk

Minneapolis smothered Louisville 19-11 and 6-2 The Colonels lost the starter after rallying for six runs in the ninth round The Millers outhit them 19-15 and at one time held a 10-run lead In the nightcap, Joe Lafata's third-inning homer was the big blow and boosted his consecutive game hitting streak to 18

INDIANS DEFEAT NATS IN 2 GAMES

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 19 — The Cleveland Indians today eyed a new one and one-half game lead after carving out a twin triumph over Washington yesterday The Philadelphia Athletics and Chicago White Sox split their bargain bill

Outfielders Dale Mitchell and Allie Clark shared honors in Cleveland's twelve-inning 6-4 nightcap victory after southpaw knuckleball hurler Gene Bearden subdued the Nats 2-1 for his eighth victory against three losses in the opener

A parade of six pitchers, starting with rookie Bob Feller and ending with winner Sam Zoldak, toiled for the Indians in the important 12-inning finale

Shutout while Feller was on the mound, the Tribe raised for a pair of two-run innings to move ahead of the Nats 4-3 entering the ninth frame of the second game Clark then saved the game with a sensational leaping catch against the right field wall for the third out after Bob Lemon yielded the tying run in the ninth.

Mitchell extended his batting streak to 15 consecutive games with a towering triple in the 12th and tallied the winning marker on Thurman Tucker's fly Clark then rapped his third hit of the game, a single and circled the bases with an "insurance" tally on an error and Joe Gordon's long fly

A single by Mitchell in the first inning of the opener, plus a walk and manager Lou Boudreau's one-bagger, gave Cleveland its initial tally Jim Hegan's triple scored Gordon from first with the winning margin for Bearden in the opener Russ Christopher hurled the final out after a brief Nat rally in the ninth.

New York Stock Quotations

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, July 19—The stock market, already badly shaken from last week's severe decline, plunged still further today.

The high speed ticker tape was one minute late under the heavy volume toward the end of the first hour.

Major groups sold from fractions to two points lower with some key issues down four to nine points from the Friday close.

The opening of trade was fast with losses being posted almost immediately in steels, rails, motors and oils. Aircraft issues appeared to breast the tide for a time.

U. S. Steel was off more than two points with other steel issues down fractions to two. Youngstown sheet broke the pattern with a three-point loss. Railroads headed down in a similar pattern with Union Pacific off 4¾ at one time.

Motors fell between one and two points, and oils for the most part lost rapidly. Sinclair Oil, Standard Oil (NJ) and Texas Co. Skelly Oil, a wide mover, fell nine points.
